Section G: Time spent outside of New Zealand

Have you spent 12 months or more in any country other than New Zealand over the last 10 years, even if you didn't spend the 12 months all in one visit?

If Yes, please list in the table below the countries other than New Zealand you have spent time in for 12 months or more (even if not all in one visit) in the last 10 years. Do not include countries you spent time in when you were under the age of 16 years. Please also provide a national police vetting certificate for each country listed, covering the entire time you stayed there (issue date needs to be close to or after you left the country).

Check out information about overseas police clearance on the Council's website.

Country	From (mm/yyyy)	To (mm/yyyy)	Police certificate: (Attach certified copies of all police certificates listed)	Date: (if 'applied for' or 'provided')

Section H: Language competency

The Teaching Council focuses on evidence-based English language competency, and we provide applicants opportunities to demonstrate competency in English or te reo Māori.

In order to teach in New Zealand, all applicants must meet the language competency requirements.

Required evidence

The evidence you will need to supply, could be in the form of test results, statement letters, official NCEA Level 2 or 3 or NZ University Entrance documentation, official school results, or formal letters on letterhead which confirm English was the primary language of instruction, through to face to face learning and assessment from schools, universities or tertiary institutions you attended.

Specified countries

The specified countries listed in this section are included because they provide more reliable evidence of language competency on the basis that English is the dominant language in each of these countries. New Zealand Immigration and the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) also accept evidence from these specified countries due to information about the integrity of administrative and qualification regimes in place.
